

A Partnership for Endurance Xcellence and Biltmore Equestrian Center
 proudly present

Susan Harris
The Painted Horse
and Centered Riding Clinic

★ ALL DISCIPLINES WELCOME ★

Saturday March 13 and Sunday March 14
 Biltmore Equestrian Center
 Biltmore Estate, Asheville, NC

March 13 morning: Painted Horse

Susan Harris paints the muscles and bones on a live horse then has the horse move through its gaits and jumping so that the audience can see the interactions.

March 13 afternoon: Lessons based on Centered Riding concepts

Improve your riding skills and the bond with your horse in small group lessons.

March 13 evening: Susan Harris will hold a question and answer session.

March 14 early morning: Ground work with horses

March 14 later: Lessons based on Centered Riding concepts

Continue to Improve your riding skills with Centered Riding concepts in small group lessons.

Some limited time may be available later Sunday for private lessons.

We will try to divide the lesson groups according to level of riding ability.

- Continental breakfast and box lunch provided Saturday and Sunday
- Primitive camping $15 / night; stalls or paddocks, contact BEC 828 225 1454
- Limited number of horses available for use, $25 / day

REGISTRATION or QUESTIONS CONTACT

Anne Ayala (828) 508-1450 kenayala@charter.net

	APEX member or BEC passholder	Others*
With horse	$375	$400
Two-day Audit	$60	$90
One-day Audit	$40	$70

- fee includes 1-year APEX Associate membership
- Note: scholarships available, check APEX web site

For more clinic details visit <http://www.apex-us.org> or Susan Harris website at: <http://www.anatomyinmotion.com>.