

USPC National Testing Committee Code of Conduct

USPC National Examiners strive to create an environment that enables each candidate to best demonstrate his/her competence, be thorough, consistent and fair in evaluating each candidate's performance for each phase of the examination, and communicate the rating results in a positive and sensitive manner. Safety, as always, is an overriding concern.

USPC is proud of its reputation for good sportsmanship, horsemanship, teamwork and well-behaved members. The USPC National Examiners and National Testing committee expect appropriate behavior from all candidates, parents and others participating in any National Testing activity.

Inappropriate behavior is:

- Possession, use, or distribution of any illegal drugs or alcohol.
- Assault
- Profanity, vulgar language or gestures
- Harassment- using words or actions that intimidate threaten or persecute others during or following testings.
- Cheating
- Abusing a horse

Any USPC member, B, H/H-A, A candidate or parent not conforming to the Code of Conduct is subject to the following actions:

1. The National Examiners administering the testing may immediately suspend or expel an individual from the testing.
2. The National Testing Committee may also withhold the privilege to attend future testings.

I have read and agree to abide by the above.
